According to Frost & Sullivan, J&T Express was the number one express delivery operator in Southeast Asia by parcel volume in 2022, and among the leading operators in China by market share. Leveraging the strong growth of its business in China and Southeast Asia, the company further expanded its reach into five countries in Latin America, Middle East and North Africa in 2022. At present, J&T's express delivery operations span 13 countries.

At the listing ceremony, frontline staff from J&T Express's 13 markets – including couriers, dispatch operators and call centre representatives – jointly witnessed a gong striking moment and company's listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.
